

Submission Guidelines

Every year, the Faculty of Science holds a science photo contest to showcase the unique and amazing scientific adventures of Saint Mary's students, alumni, faculty and staff—both on campus and around the globe.

This year's winning photographs will be showcased in the 2020 Science Calendar, and the top three submissions will receive a prize.

ELIGIBILITY: The contest is open to all Saint Mary's students, staff, faculty, and alumni.

DEADLINE: All entries are due by 5:00 pm (AT) on Monday, October 21.

NUMBER OF ENTRIES: Participants may submit a maximum of three original photographs.

PHOTO CATEGORIES

Contest participants are invited to enter up to three original photos from one or more of the following categories:

- Science at work: Photos that demonstrate participation in science (think experiments and fieldwork)
- Scientific visualization: Photos that illustrate a scientific concept, including computeru or microscopeu generated images. Course work is welcome!
- Nature/Natural: Photos of everyday situations or environments that demonstrate a scientific concept or subject. Science is everywhere!

RESOLUTION: All entries must be a minimum of 300 DPI (dots per inch) at 10x10 inches.
