Proposed Field of Research

All full-time graduate students who apply by February 1 are considered for FGSR graduate funding and those who are successful are officially notified by the Faculty of Graduate Studies and Research. In addition, accepted students are eligible for teaching assistantships within the department and financial support from their research supervisor.

Additional documents required:

1. Letter of Intent: Please expand on your areas of interest in a letter of intent, between 1-2 pages, that briefly states your specific interests, and how you expect the program to further your career goals.
2. Sample of academic writing (10-15 pages in length).
3. Transcripts: We will accept uploaded unofficial transcripts for evaluation purposes. Applicants must upload a grading scale with their unofficial transcripts. Successful applicants will be required to submit official final transcripts.
4. Two (2) recommendation forms.
5. A current CV/Resume.
6. Official Proof of English Language Proficiency (if required).

Please upload the completed form to your online application.
