

Name Sara Malton
Rank Associate Professor
Phone number 902.496.8137
E-mail sara.malton@smu.ca
Office number MN 330
website saramalton.com

Overview

Sara Malton specializes in nineteenth-century literature, especially the intersection of fiction, finance, law and cultural memory. My interests also include consumer and commodity culture as well as the relationship between literature, technology, and modernity.

After receiving my PhD in English from the University of Toronto in 2004, I went on to a SSHRC Postdoctoral Fellowship at Cornell University. I thereafter joined the Department of English at Saint Mary's in 2005. In addition to teaching in the English Department at Saint Mary's, I also have served on thesis committees in the Sobey School of Business (PhD in Management) and at Dalhousie University where I am an Adjunct Professor. I am a current Trustee of the Dickens Society and recently hosted the 20th Annual Dickens Society Symposium at Saint Mary's in July, 2015.

Teaching

Courses 2015-16

English 2205 — Introduction to the Practice of Criticism
English 2303 — Fictions of Finance
English 3481 — The Nineteenth-Century British Novel I
English 3482 — The Nineteenth-Century British Novel II

Courses that I regularly teach

English 3484 — Victorian Poetry & Prose II
English 4485 — Advanced Victorian Studies – Literature, Technology and Visual Culture
Honours Seminars: The Forged & The Authentic in Nineteenth Century Culture
Law, Lawlessness & Nineteenth Century Cultural Memory

Selected Publications

My work has appeared in such journals as Studies in the Novel, Victorian Literature and Culture, the European Romantic Review, and English Studies in Canada, and Nineteenth Century Studies. My book Forgery in Nineteenth Century Literature and Culture: Fictions of Finance from Dickens to Wilde was published by Palgrave-Macmillan in 2009.

Selected Awards and Research Projects

2011 – 2015 SSHRC Standard Faculty Research Grant for book project, “Rough Waters: Naval Impressment and Nineteenth-Century Cultural Memory”

2015 SMU Faculty of Graduate Studies & Research Grant for “Victorian Women Writers and the American Civil War”