

Training for the Team. Take the next step.

Talent Development Package

April 2018

Organizations like yours need training that translates into enhanced skills and greater on-the-job expertise. Training with Saint Mary's University's Executive and Professional Development is not about sitting back and soaking things up - it's about diving in and rolling up your sleeves.

Finding the right training when you need it, and within budget can be a challenge. The solution is the Talent Development Package, which will stretch your training budget by up to 30% further. That could be the difference needed so that everyone gets some development this year. Or you'll be able to reap the benefits sooner with a team that is ready to tackle those big challenges.

Buy a Talent Development Package for $5000 (applicable taxes not included) and you'll get 10 seats in any of our regular priced two-day seminars ($765 to $875). That's a savings of up to $3750 .

Need assistance developing a learning plan for your team?
Ask us, we can lend a hand.

Don't have time to track the training for your employees?
Not to worry. We provide regular updates and there is a generous 18 months to schedule the training.

Not sure your organization can commit to this quantity of training?
For those with smaller teams we still offer our generous 10% group discount for three or more people registered for the same seminar.

The only thing you need to do?
Pre-purchase the Talent Development Package .

For further details and to find out how your organization can begin to benefit from the Talent Development Package speak with Gerry Martin at 1-800-877-0874 .