Course: LING 4518.2   Topics in Applied Linguistics
Department: Program in Linguistics, Faculty of Arts, Saint Mary's University
Semester: Winter 2025 (January 6–April 23)
Schedule: Lectures: Mondays & Wednesdays, 1:00 to 2:15 p.m. (on campus)
Final examination: date TBD (within the exam period, April 11–23)

Academic Calendar Description: This course will examine topics in applied linguistics. The course may focus on linguistic approaches to literacy, first or second language acquisition, bilingualism, or a similar topic. The goal of the course is to develop knowledge of primary literature addressing linguistic contributions to the area under focus, but also to develop skills in problem based interdisciplinary thinking, research and collaboration.
Prerequisite: At least eighteen (18) credit hours in LING, a second language, or psychology

Applicants are asked to propose a specific topic consistent with this general description.

Qualifications: Applicants must have a Ph.D. completed or near completion in linguistics, applied linguistics, or a closely related field, and experience teaching linguistics and/or applied linguistics at the undergraduate level.

Duties: Duties and responsibilities include preparation and delivery of lectures, preparation and evaluation of all student assessments, and holding regular office hours during the term.

Remuneration: Remuneration is in accordance with the Collective Agreement between Saint Mary's University and CUPE 3912.

How to Apply: Applications are invited in the first instance from part-time faculty colleagues on the Saint Mary's precedence list. Applicants who currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a cover letter and a c.v. Applicants who do not currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a complete application (including a cover letter, c.v., proof of academic credentials, names and contact information of three referees, and any evidence of teaching effectiveness).

Submissions should be made as a single PDF file sent by e-mail to: `linguistics@smu.ca`

Application deadline: Friday, July 26, 2024
